Medal of Honor Host City Volunteer Application Process

The following guidelines are established for the support of events for the Medal of Honor Host City Program. The intent of this application process is to ensure an adequate level of support is made available and to share the opportunities available through our program. Each group interested in serving must complete an application and submit it to the MOHHC Program by February, 2, 2019. The MOHHC Board will make their selections and notify each organization of their approved opportunity by March 5, 2019.

- An application must be filled out and submitted by the point of contact (POC) that will represent the group applying to serve.
- The group POC will interface with the committee chair of the event they are selected to serve.
- The group POC will provide a list of volunteers that will be representing their organization.
- The group POC will be responsible for ensuring the volunteers show up on time and are prepared to serve at the event they are selected to serve.
- The group POC will be in attendance for the duration of the event selected to serve and will be responsible for the volunteers they submitted for the event.
